

GENEAOLOGY SITES Provided by Patti Overturf

Ancestry.com: census and other extremely useful databases such as Soc. Sec.Dth. Index and WWI Registration; free at SLO Family History Center.

heritagequestonline.com: census and 25,000 books; available through libraries see eogen.com/HertiageQuestOnline for libraries to obtain card rootsweb.com: free Soc.Sec. Deth.Index and message boards, other resources; DAR lookup in Patriots Index-see topics boards; can sign up for surname, county & locale mailing lists; register for newsletter usgenweb.com: state/county boards with very helpful resources and volunteers for lookups; links to associated sites

Maps: ligenmi.com1895 for 1895 Atlas, lib.utexas.edu/maps/histus.html;
rootsweb.com/~usgenwebmaps;topozone.com; loc.gov familysearch.org: library (view "related sources" on place search for counties) can order films $6 to SLO or Atascadero Family Hist. Ctr.; Ancestral File & IGI (about 40% errors--document yourself); helpful forms & guidance under "research helps" lib.byu.edu: collection of family histories online; go to Find other materials>Electronics>On line collections at BYU>Text Collection tab>Family History Archive; on going, check back for updates as all other sites vitalsearch-ca.com (they will email you username and password) for 1905-1929 Ca. birth/death index; county of death by number code; ask county for informational copy cyndislist.com: mecca of genealogy sites; some pay and some free; see software.htm for comparison of computer software glorecords.blm.gov/--Land: federal land records eogn.com: online genealogical newsletter; part free, can also subscribe

RAOGK.org: random acts of genealogical kindness volunteers archives.gov/verterans/research/genealogy.html: military records newspaperabstracts.com: listing by states of contributed articles; also google U.S. Newspaper Program for official state respository; holdings can be in other libraries tho kcbx.net/~slogen: San Luis Obispo Genealogical Society; 2 libraries-Santa Maria and SLO